To,

All District Collectors, MP.

Sub: Regarding issuance of suitable instructions to the concerned authorities to permit candidates to move outside restricted areas for appearing in Personality Test of Civil Services Examination, 2019.

Ref: E-mail of Joint Secretary, Examination, Union Public Service Commission, New Delhi dated 04/07/2020.

In reference to the context kindly note that Personality Test of Civil Services Examination, 2019 will re-commence w.e.f 20/7/2020. A message/email to this effect has been sent to all candidates by the UPSC stating that "Candidates are advised to show the print of e-summon letter and e-mail to move outside from the containment zone/restricted areas for attending the Civil Services Examination, 2019 Personality Test at UPSC, Delhi and back".

Kindly be apprised that in pursuance to Unlock processes in the State, there is currently no imposed restriction on inter district/inter State travel. However, it is directed that any candidate producing a print copy of e-summon letter and e-mail issued to them by UPSC, may please be permitted to travel to New Delhi and back for attending their Personality Test.
